

BPL will interfere with other licensed services using the HF spectrum, including Part 15, Amateur radio and CB. In addition this interference could extend to causing disruption to Emergency Communications. Power Companies have frequent complaints about interference caused by power line arcing, transformers, etc. There is no reason to expect that BPL emission levels will be maintained so as to avoid harmful interference.